

Sanctioned Adult Tournament Application & Information

(Revised October 2019)

HOW to become a CSA Sanctioned Adult Tournament:

Tournament sanctioning is a member service provided to CSA Affiliate Members. A complete application includes:

1. One-page Sanctioned Adult Tournament Application
2. Tournament Competition Rules
3. Non-refundable Application Fee of $100.00

BENEFITS of becoming a CSA Sanctioned Adult Tournament:

- Promotion on CSA's website at www.coloradosoccer.org
- Eligibility to apply through CSA to USSF for permission to host foreign teams
- Tournament and players covered by insurance, including General Liability and Secondary Soccer Accident Insurance. CSA/USASA insurance coverage cannot be used for non-CSA sanctioned tournaments.

RESPONSIBILITIES of being a CSA Sanctioned Adult Tournament:

- To comply with the rules and regulations of CSA, USASA, USSF and FIFA
- To use active CSA certified and trained USSF Referees and Assignors
- To ensure that all accepted players are registered (both online and on-site registration resources will be provided to you by CSA)
- To report violent conduct or assaults to CSA within 72 hours
- Submit team fees of $150.00 per Adult team accepted within ten (10) days of Tournament conclusion. Payment to be submitted to CSA 4643 S. Ulster Street, Ste 250., Denver CO 80237
